

St Aloysius' School, Redan
Fixed Term
Classroom Teachers 2026

Experienced and Graduate Teachers are encouraged to apply for Fixed Term Classroom Teaching Positions at St. Aloysius' School in 2026.

Do you have a passion for education?

We are seeking passionate and dedicated teachers who are committed to:

- Upholding the Catholic ethos and principles of Catholic education.
- Bringing energy and commitment to the school's vision of "pursuing fullness of life for all."
- Actively engaging in ongoing professional learning and embracing innovative, contemporary practices.
- Welcoming feedback and demonstrating a strong commitment to professional growth.
- Using data and feedback to inform practice and enhance student outcomes.
- Ensuring the safety, wellbeing, and protection of every child in their care.

If you are interested in joining St. Aloysius', we invite you to provide a written response addressing the following selection criteria.

Applicants should demonstrate, through examples, their ability to:

- demonstrate a commitment to Catholic education
- develop and maintain professional and respectful relationships with students, parents and colleagues
- create a collaborative learning environment that educates, challenges and engages through innovative contemporary practices
- provide students with a child-safe environment
- be familiar with and demonstrate a commitment to comply with the school's child-safe policy and code of conduct, and any other policies or procedures relating to child safety
- demonstrate a commitment to professional growth and ongoing learning and development
- demonstrate enthusiasm, motivation and team-oriented dispositions.

Applications need to include:

- A completed Application for Employment Form;
- A brief cover letter outlining your suitability for the position;
- A current Curriculum Vitae detailing your experience, skills and employment history including the names and contact details of three referees;
- Response to Selection Criteria.

Applications should be addressed to the Principal, Narelle Cox and emailed to: ncox@saredan.catholic.edu.au
